Parent Communication 8.11.24

Dear Parents/ Carers,

Welcome back to school and I hope your child has had a positive return to school this week. It has been a really positive start to the new term with lots of great things going on.

End of term events and money raised for school

As a result of the end of term non-uniform before half term and the PTA pub quiz held on the evening of the same day, £150 was raised for the school. Thank you to everyone who was part of this and contributed to raising this money.

Armistice day assembly of remembrance and coffee morning

On Monday morning the primary department are putting on an Armistice Day assembly and coffee morning, which we invite parents/ carers who are interested to attend to do so. This will start at 10.45 and therefore please come to reception by 10.35 if you would like to attend.

Parents evening – Thursday 28th November

On Thursday 28th November we will be holding a parents evening event between 4.00pm and 6.30pm – which will be the opportunity for parents/ carers to come into school and meet either their child's class teacher (primary/ Inspire) or their child's tutor (secondary).

We will also use this opportunity for parents to visit and tour the school, and see where your children are learning every day, where you would like to do so and the SLT will also be on hand to talk through anything you may want to raise.

Further specific details will be coming out about this soon. But please put the date in your diary!

Anti-Bullying Week and Odd Socks Day

Anti-Bullying Week 2024 will take place from Monday 11th - Friday 15th November, with the theme: Choose Respect. During this week we will focussing our tutor times and assemblies on this important topic, and we will also be launching our Anti-Bullying Ambassador programme in line with the work carried out by The Diana Award. We have requested training from the Diana Award and are waiting to hear if our school has been allocated a place within the next set of training being offered in early 2025.

Odd Socks Day, which forms part of anti-bullying week is taking place on Tuesday 12th November, with adults and children being encouraged to wear odd socks to celebrate what makes us all unique. We look forward to seeing as many odd socks as possible on the day.
